Process in 4 Steps

1. Pre-approval Application: Firstly you need to apply for pre-approval for which certain documents would be required that include the following:

- A certified copy of your existing passport
- A second form of your certified ID copy (such as a driving license)
- Your police clearance report
- Your personal profile like CV or resume

A one-off due diligence fee of USD 5,000 is also payable along with the submission of these documents.

2. Investment Submission: After having attained the pre-approval, you would have to submit the investment regarding which you will be able to receive clearance verification in the written form sent by the Vanuatu government Financial Intelligence Unit (FIU) within ten days of initial application so that you would proceed to your further application process by making complete payment of investment in addition to the remaining documentation filing.

3. Screening: It is a crucial step in the application process as it involves the assessment of requisite clearance to proceed from FIU, stipulated documentation, complete payment of investment by the Vanuatu Citizen Commission. It is done in order to ensure the error free document submission by the applicant. After which the affirmation of your citizenship would be first done by the Prime Minister followed by the President who would sign your Citizenship Certificate.

3. Attaining Citizenship after Taking Oath:

The Vanuatu Government Commissioner of Oath has deemed it as a compulsory requirement for an applicant to take his citizenship oath after fulfilling all other requirements. In this oath taking ceremony, you pledge regarding your allegiance to Vanuatu while claiming all the associated rights and become an official citizen of Vanuatu by receiving your citizenship certificate and your new passport. However, you do not necessarily need to be physically present in Vanuatu to attend your oath taking ceremony.
